

Workshop on the inclusion and exclusion of migrant communities sharing similar cultural backgrounds with their host societies

Monday, 20 November 2017

Wissenschaftsforum

Markgrafenstraße 37, 10117 Berlin, Germany

To register please send an email until 10 November to bouju@demogr.mpg.de

PROGRAMME

---

09:00 – 09:15 REGISTRATION

09:15 – 09:30 WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

09:30 – 10:00

Pascal Maeder (NCCR LIVES - HES-SO / University of Lausanne)

Experiences of Germans who grew-up in Central and East Europe or Russia who moved to Germany and / or Canada in the aftermath of World War II.

10:00 – 10:30

Attila Melegh & Attila Papp (Corvinus University of Budapest)

Nationalist solutions in the era of globalization. Demographic challenges, anti-immigration discourses and the preferential treatment of Hungarians.

10:30 – 11:00 COFFEE BREAK

11:00 – 11:30

Tatiana Eremenko (CSIC / INED)

Language proficiency and legal status acquisition. Evidence from France.

11:30 – 12:00

Laurence Lessard-Phillips (University of Birmingham)

Beyond 'shared heritage'? The inclusion of Commonwealth citizens in the UK in education and the labour market.

12:00 – 12:30

Andreu Domingo (Autonomous University of Barcelona)

Migration, social and demographic reproduction systems. The case of Hispano-American migrants in Spain.

12:30 – 13:30 LUNCH

13:30 – 14:00

Özkan Ezli (University of Konstanz)

From articulation to practice: What do you live? Or the Burkini as an example of new forms of inclusion.

14:00 – 14:30

João Sardinha (University of Lisbon)

Patterns of integration, identity negotiations and the roles of Brazilian associations in Portugal (late-1980s to the present).

14:30 – 15:00

Deepra Dandekar (Max Planck Institute for Human Development)

Is the Integration of Migrants a Chimera? Refugees in India after 1947.

15:00 – 15:30 COFFEE BREAK

15:30 – 16:00

Anna Krasteva (New Bulgarian University)

Russians in Bulgaria: Four waves – four types of integration.

16:00 – 16:30

Soňa Mikulová (Max Planck Institute for Human Development)

The experience of German expellees from the former Sudetenland and their integration in catholic vs. protestant regions in Germany.

16:30 – 17:00 FINAL DISCUSSION